

CARTERS IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THAT...

Three lawyers have recently been admitted as partners.

Jane Burke-Robertson practices charity and not-for-profit law in the Ottawa office. She joined the firm in 2005, after having been counsel to the firm since 2003. Ms. Burke-Robertson has been ranked by Lexpert and The Best Lawyers in Canada as an expert in her field in Canada. She is also co-author of Non-Share Capital Corporations published by Carswell and contributing author to Industry Canada's Primer for Directors of Not-For-Profit Corporations, and a part-time professor at the Faculty of Law, University of Ottawa.

Theresa L.M. Man practices charity and not-for-profit law, with particular emphasis on tax issues, in the Orangeville office. She joined the firm in 2001. Mrs. Man is an Executive Member of both the Charity and Not-for-Profit Sections of the Ontario Bar Association and the Canadian Bar Association, and is currently pursuing her LL.M. in Tax Law. Mrs. Man is also a frequent contributor to The Lawyers Weekly, Charity Law Bulletin, and The Bottom Line.

Jacqueline M. Demczur practices charity and not-for-profit law, including incorporation, corporate restructuring, and legal risk management reviews, as well as wills, estate planning and estate administration, with the Orangeville office, and has been with the firm since 2001. She is a contributing author to Industry Canada's Primer for Directors of Not-For-Profit Corporations, and has written numerous articles on charity and not-for-profit issues for the Lawyers Weekly, The Philanthropist and Charity Law Bulletin.
